FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Logan County Sherriff's Office Emergency Management is monitoring the proposed army detonation of expired munitions in Iowa. Our EMA participated in the coordinated IDPH, IEPA, IEMA and NWS briefing. Detonation is scheduled for 09:00 on Wednesday the 25th and could still be delayed. Current weather conditions for Wednesday predict Illinois will not have any effect/plume as it will remain in Iowa.

Official public information will come from the US ARMY and FEMA. Linked below is the US EPA statement from the site coordinator and the US ARMY.
